1. In the summer of 1951 the Polish merchant ship S.S. Tobruk was berthed Khoramshar, Iran for more than two months. During her stay there, the underwent extensive repair because of failures in the oil for system.	ship
2. After the return of the ship to Gdymia, several members of her crew workigh decorations. Crew members decorated included Henryk Zalewski, the officer of the ship. The decorated crew members were also sent to Dars they carried on pro-Iranian propaganda.	political
3. About the end of August 1951, the ship left Edynia for Eurmansk. The c be made familiar with conditions in the U.S.S.R. After the return of t a pro-Soviet festival will be arranged with the aid of her crew. *	rew is to he Tobruk ,
25X1 * Comment. The repair work done in Khoramshar was possibly only a for the long stay of the ship there. It is suspected that crew members assigned propagandi tasks in Iran. This seems to be the reason why the officer of the ship was decorated. Leither the captain nor the first of S.S. Tobruk are known to have been decorated. The ship passed Elsinore northerly course on 28 August 1951.	wero political officer of
